Dedication

Elk Grove High School is now an established institution devoted to producing quality in both leadership and academics. Our traditions now have been set. We have seen our first seniors graduate, and we have witnessed our first real homecoming. School spirit is growing. All of this has required much hard work on the part of the students, faculty, and administration alike to make Elk Grove High School a great one.

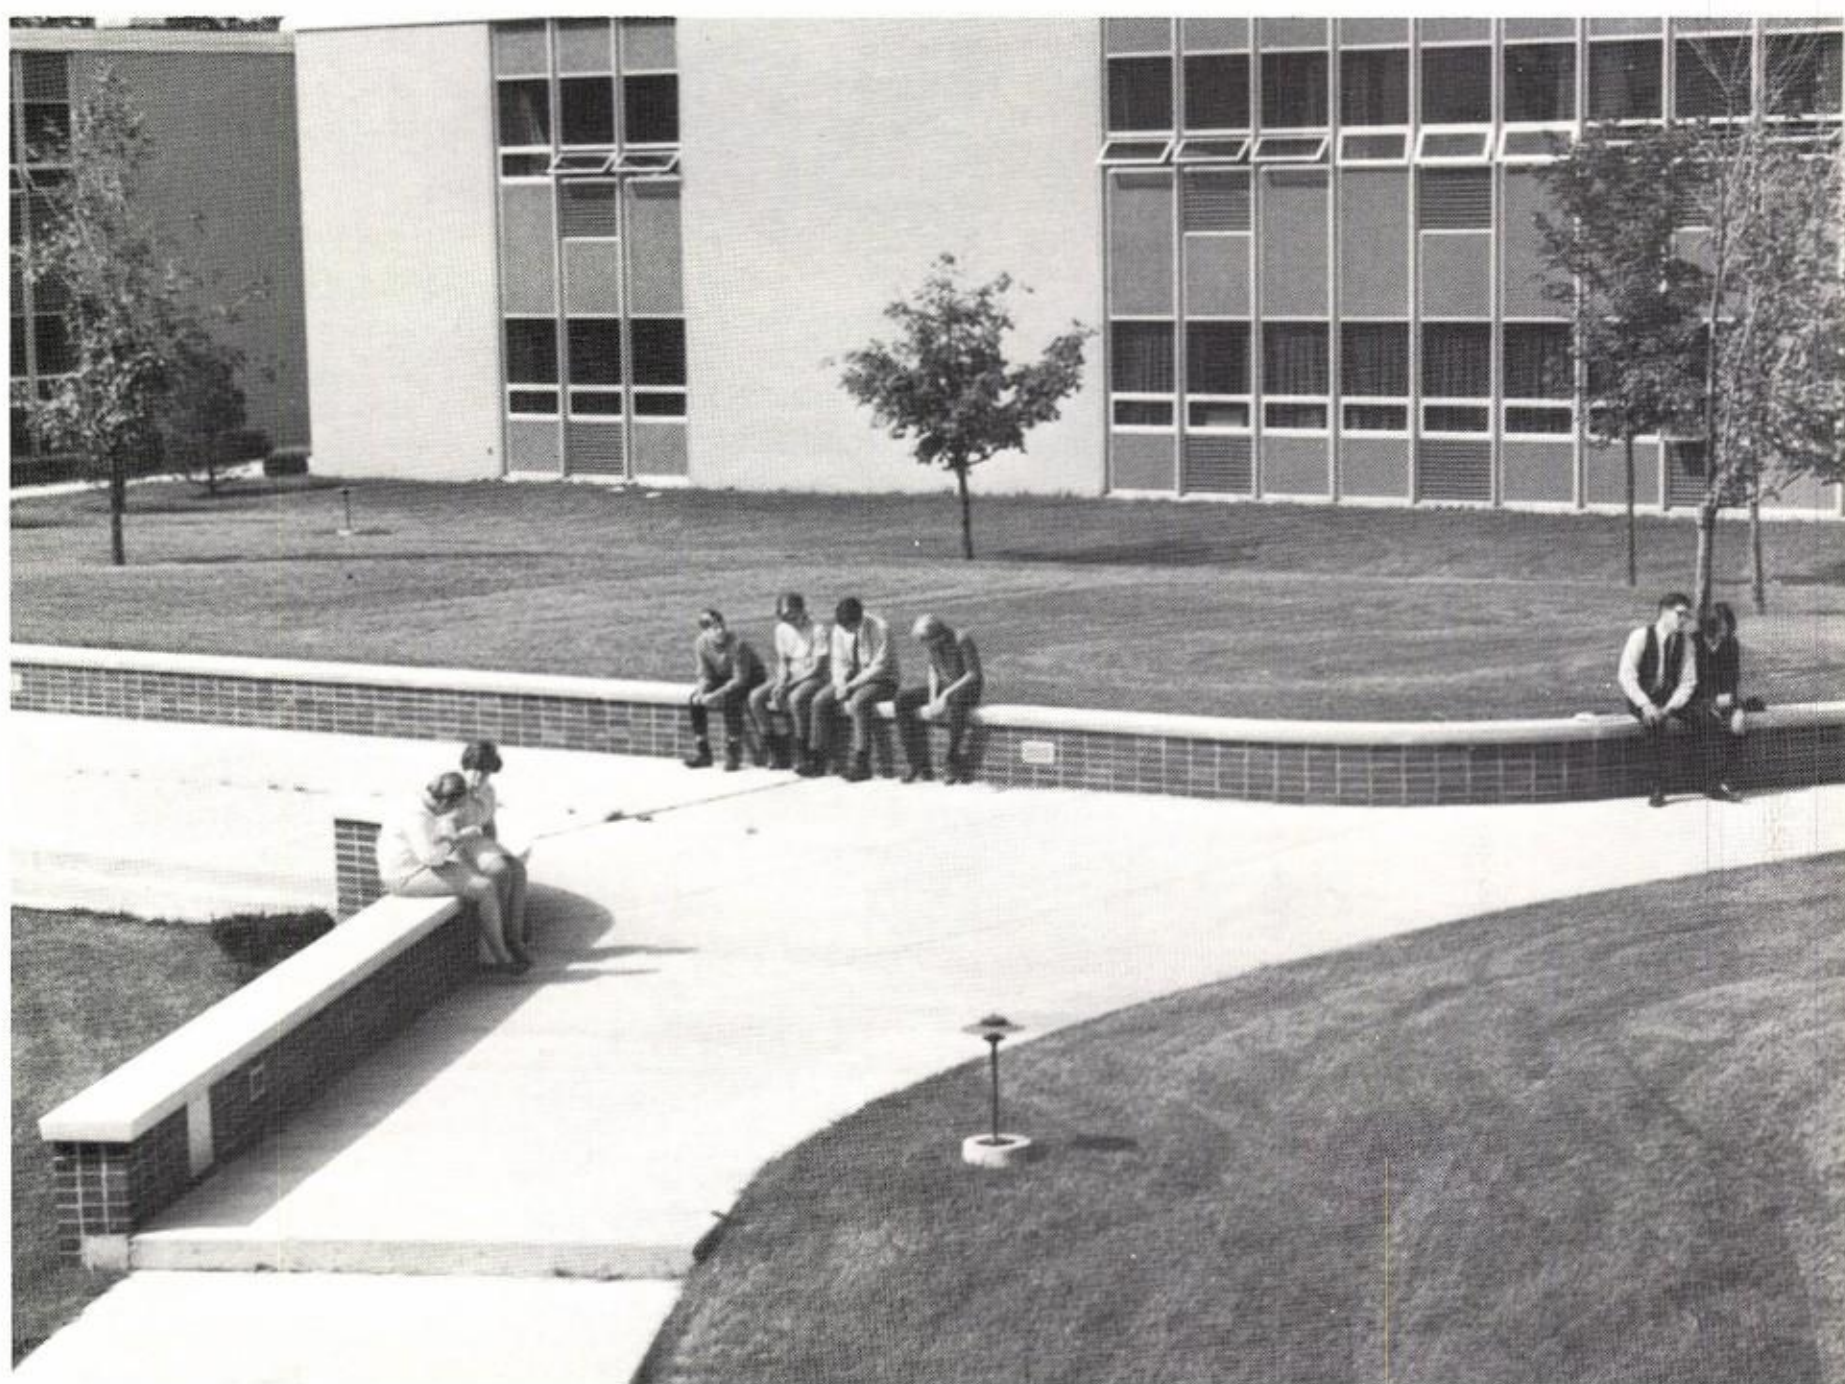

The greatest responsibility that all run smoothly in the development of such a school rests with the principal. For his continued devotion to his work and for a job well done we dedicate this growing story to Mr. Robert Haskell, principal of Elk Grove High School.

Elk Grove High School past, present, and future—
our great seal of victory ever before us . . .

Three years ago we were just a school (minus those special seniors).

The struggle has been long,
the way rough,
but we have achieved
VICTORY and HONOR.

Our rivals must look on us
as victorious,
no longer new.
Conference Championship brought with it much honor for EGHS.
Highly regard our musket,
symbol of that honor!

Seniors and alumni carry our banner high.
Their loyalty soars and kindles undergraduate hopes and anticipations.
Surely they have brought us
one step closer to Victory!

Learning is vital to our institution.
Our teachers have sought to instill in us
the knowledge that will make it possible for each to experience
the panache,
Grenadier symbol of learning,
upon his own head.
Let it be a Victory for mankind.

Our grenade is symbolic of freedom—freedom experienced through the special things:
our Prom, La Fete,
Christmas Ball,
or a mixer.
EGHS has been our guide to the ways of the world.

Keep the sabre,
symbol of truth,
always before you,
This is EGHS.
Her many facets are contributing to the winning spirit that is becoming ever more well-known to the Grenadier Regiments.
Let her name be forever cherished. She moves ONWARD TO VICTORY!

Seniors Class of 1969

Although we weren't the first graduating class or the first four-year class of EGHS, everyone must realize the contributions that the Class of '69 has made.

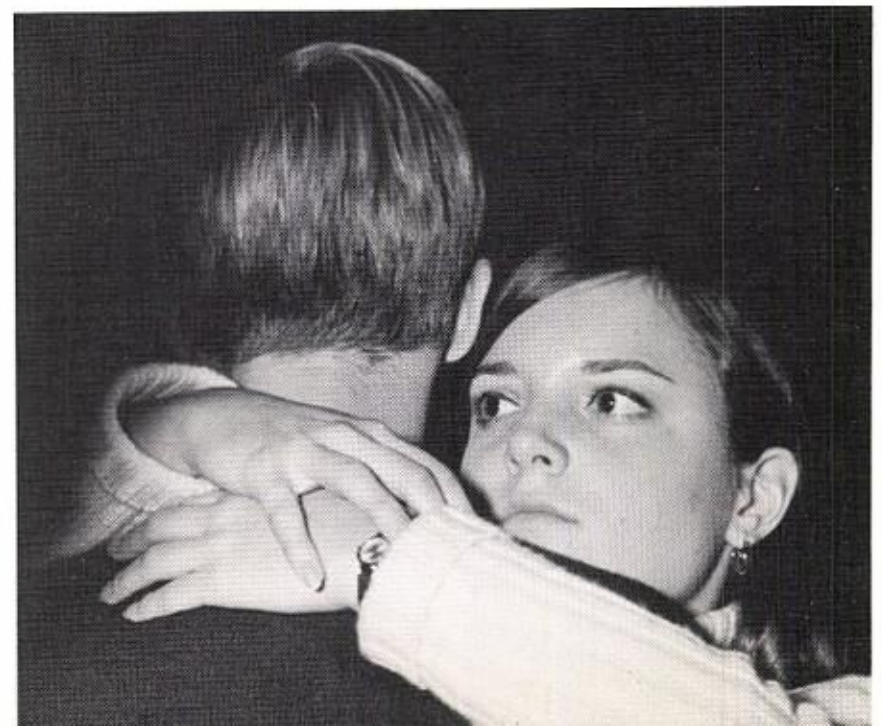

We have set traditions that will not soon be forgotten or left behind by those remaining at Elk Grove. We sponsored the first Christmas Ball and the first prom in Elk Grove's history. As seniors we organized and participated in Elk Grove's first alumni homecoming.

Students for the first time spoke up for what they wanted: a revised dress code, open study halls, referendums, and a council that would achieve their desires for them. They approached these problems with the added dimension of determination to get something done about them. Not all desires have been met, but seniors have led the school toward these goals.

We will not soon forget our years at Elk Grove.

"... friendships here without measure, Grenadiers through our joys and tears will be."

We have set the traditions. Now it is for those who follow us to keep these traditions as proof forever that the Class of '69 is indeed MIGHTY FINE!

In Memoriam

Life, perhaps, is like a candle and not so dear as we believe.

A breeze that goes astray can blow it out.

Perhaps life is like a flame that shines far out into the night until the careless wind will come again.

*Yet, perhaps it's more than that,
for we are here to fill a need.*

Each person's flame gives light to someone else.

We here today still have our chance to shine far brighter.

A shame some have not this chance.

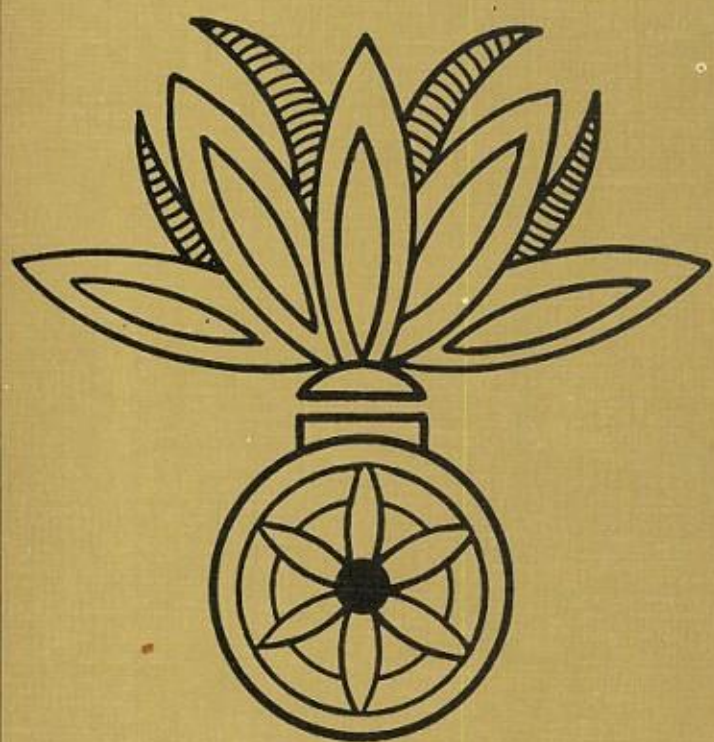

We bow to Sue and Mike—

Their flames are out.

*Memories do not die,
Neither can they be blown out.*

What they've given us cannot all be forgotten.

Their flame can burn within our minds and hearts.

Elk Grove Grenade: Symbol of Freedom

Debbie Berto led the Senior team through the arch of the cheerleaders and onward to victory.

The Senior cheerleaders, Terry Gruniger, Mike Sobie, Gary Pleickhardt, and Tom Neri, cheered their girls on to victory.

Powder Puff Game

The second annual Powder Puff Football Game, held on September 28, was sponsored by the Junior class. Spurred on by their talented cheerleaders, Senior girls defeated the Juniors in a spectacular 6-0 victory. The game was followed by a turnabout dance. It proved to be a success for all who attended.

Anxious fans looked on as Senior Debbie Bruck contemplated passing the ball to one of her teammates.

Senior and Junior girls battled for possession of the ball. Senior Terri Altergott later scored six points for her team.

Coronation '68

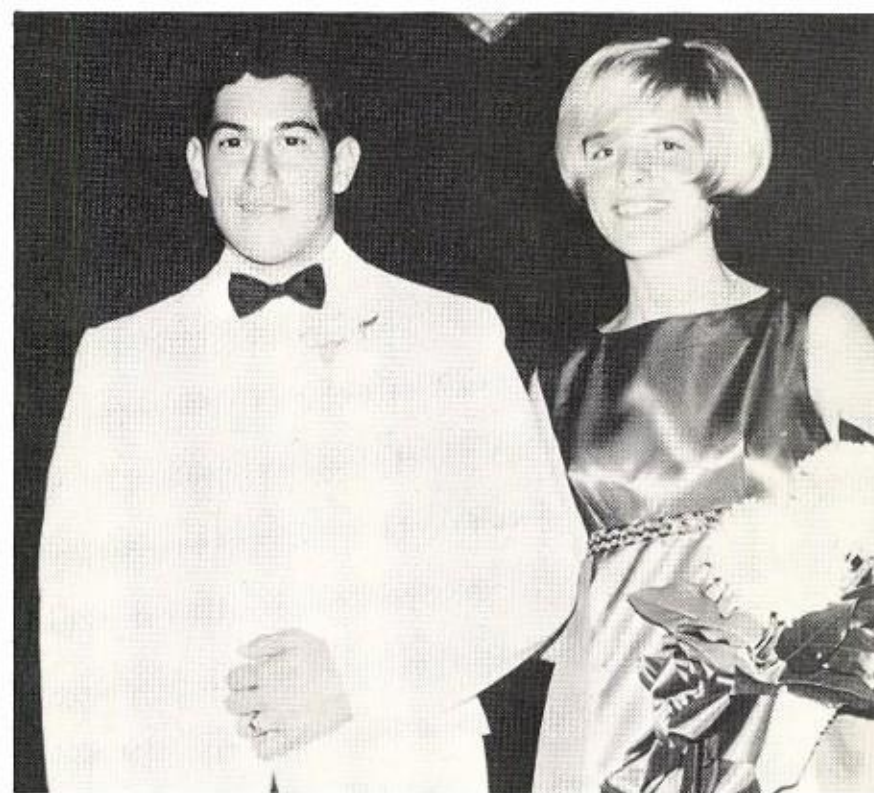

On October 18, 1968, the Elk Grove student body assembled in the gym, decorated in green and gold for the occasion, anxiously awaiting the coronation of their new regiment sweetheart. Judy Paleczny, last year's queen, made her last formal appearance before the students and faculty as she gave up her crown to Mary Shea, the newly chosen Homecoming queen.

La Fête

Elk Grove's first real homecoming with seniors and alumni commenced with Spirit Week. Freshmen wore '72 ribbons, sophomores wore '71 shirts, juniors celebrated with wild hats, and seniors dressed up for the occasion. Homecoming included the coronation ceremony, pep rally, mixer, and bonfire. On the day of the game against the Cardinals, Grenadiers joined together in parade activities. The 1968 Homecoming celebration closed with the semi-formal dance, La Fête.

A View From the Bridge, directed by Mr. Ronald Raben, brought great honors to Elk Grove High School by placing second in District competition and taking the cast on to the sectional contest. A View From the Bridge is an adult drama about a family that has good intentions, but is destroyed through their emotions because it is unable to understand either itself or others. Alfieri tells the family's story through the use of flashbacks. His story is about the great love he feels for this family and his sorrow at being so powerless to help it. Arthur Miller, through the lawyer gives his views of life and death as the play draws itself and the audience toward inevitable tragedy.

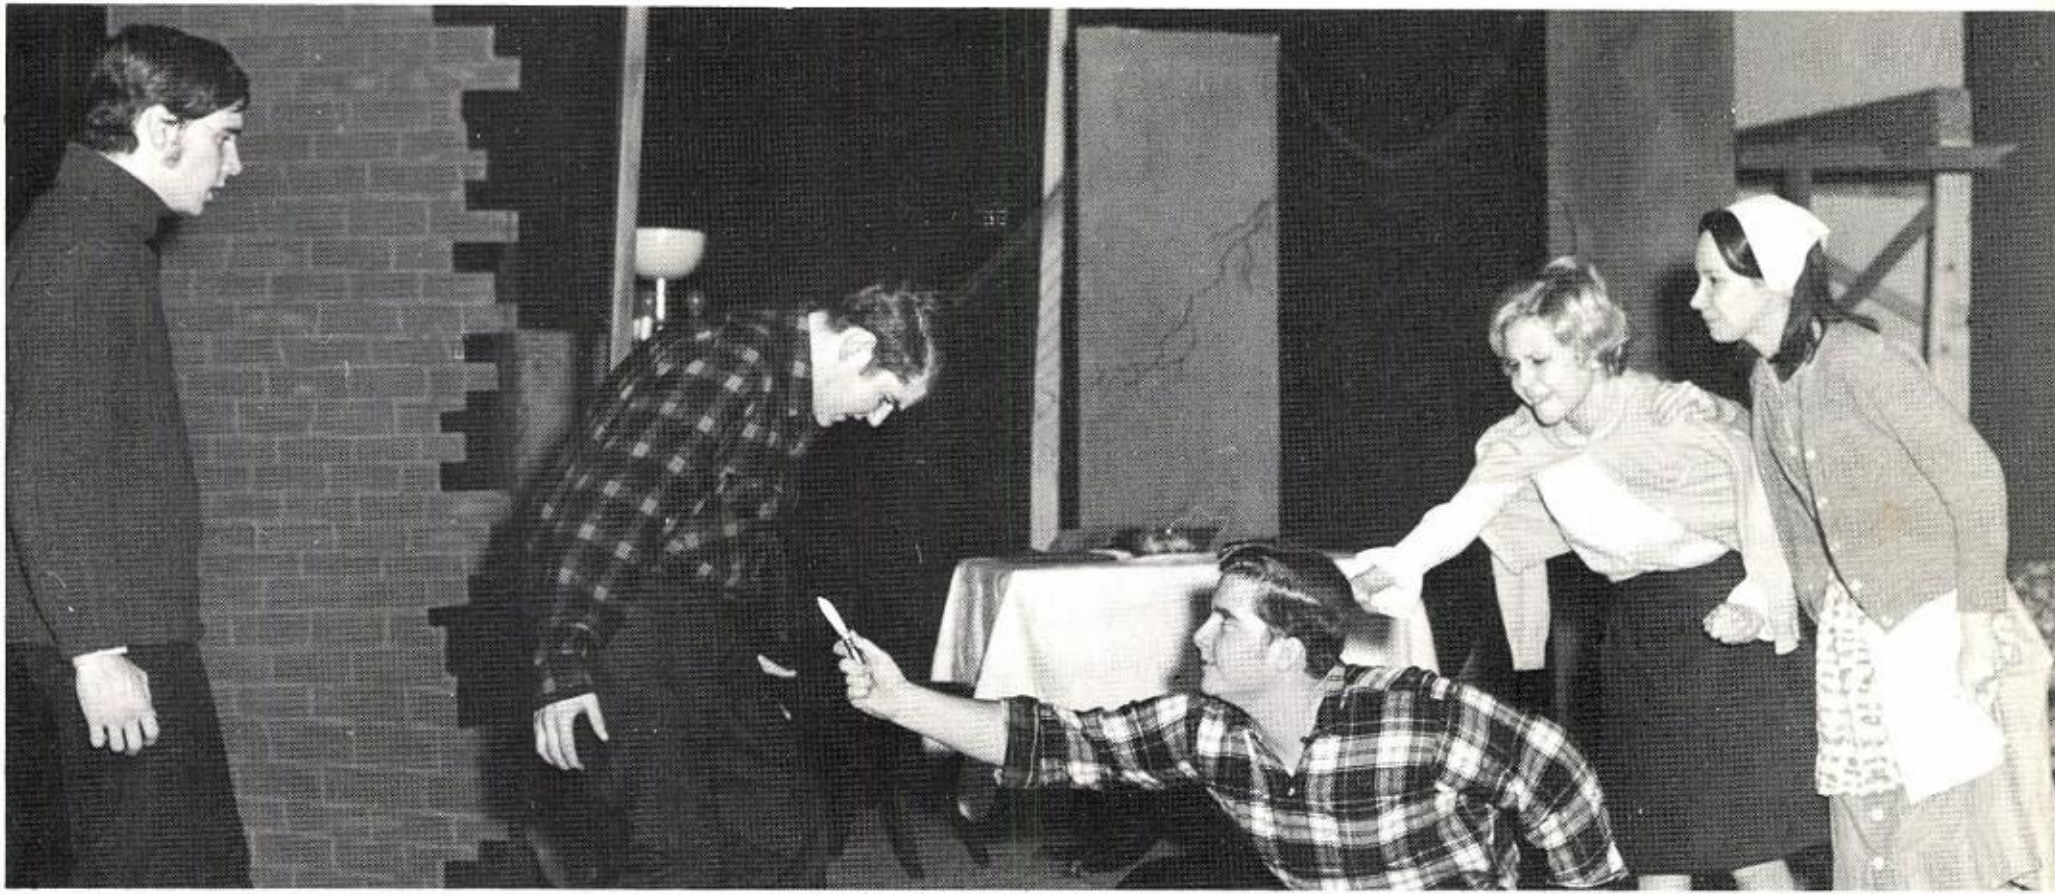

"I want to talk to her a minute, Rodolpho. Go inside, will you?"
 But, "Eddie, we only walk together in the streets. She teaches me."

Katie asks, "Don't you understand? He can't bail you out . . ."

Alfieri asks, "What do you say?" Rodolpho remarks, "Marco never hurt anybody."

Eddie demands, "Tell the people what a liar you are! You lied about me, Marco. Now say it. Come on now, say it!"

As Catherine looks on, Beatrice tells Eddie, "Mmm! You're an angel! God'll bless you. You'll get a blessing for this!"

Fond Memories of Some Enchanted Evening

On May 29, 1968, the King's Court Ballroom at the Sheraton O'Hare became the setting for a most "Enchanted Evening." The room awaited its guests. Soon, young ladies appeared in their loveliest, escorted by comely young men. A receiving line of honored guests greeted each couple as they entered the splendid room. Gradually, an atmosphere was created—a beautiful, youthful atmosphere. The music, gay and light, and the soft pastel colors gave the room a special touch. Exposed to this atmosphere, everyone wanted to dance. The lights dimmed, but in no way did the room lack luster. Each face seemed to emit a special glow, revealing the heart's miracle of inward light. It was a lovely spectacle. Then the coronation took place. Queen Pat Clarke, King Jim Oplt, and their court reigned throughout the remaining part of the evening.

Student Council

Student Council's purpose is to coordinate student activities, promote cooperation in organizations, provide a forum for student expression, and further school spirit. This year's Student Council, led by President Jim Brookman, has sponsored the Variety Show, the Canned Food Drive, which Elk Grove won in district competition, and "Jam the Gym." Student Council also had a sleep-in, which took place on separate nights for the girls and boys.

Presidents' Club

Giving presidents of the various school organizations a better insight into procedures and methods of organizing their clubs and developing initiative within the clubs were the main objectives of the Presidents' Club. By bringing the presidents of the clubs together at its meetings, the Presidents' Club encouraged communication between various clubs and unity within the school.

Quill and Scroll is a national honorary society for high school journalists. Our school includes members from both the Montage and Guardian staffs. In order to qualify for Quill and Scroll, a student must be in the upper third of his class and participate in journalistic activities for at least one year. This year, Quill and Scroll members participated in the Homecoming parade as well as in their regular school activities.

The National Honor Society is a select group of students. Each candidate must receive character ratings of at least eighteen points. Service and leadership points also are required. During the year members have sponsored the sale of pennants and numerous concessions. The money made from these activities went toward their initiation in March.

National Forensic League

National Forensics League is an honorary club for students who have earned at least 25 points in either debate or individual speech events. Points can be earned by competing in speech contests throughout this district. An equivalent of 75 points is needed for the league of honor, 150 points for excellence, and 250 points for distinction. National Forensics League's main project is the school calendar.

Key Club

The Key Club is a organization whose primary objectives are to develop initiative and leadership, to provide experience in living and working together, to serve school and community, to cooperate with the school principal, and to prepare for useful citizenship. Headed by President Gary Shick, Key Club has sponsored the Kiwanis Kids' Day Peanut Sale, has conducted a football raffle during Homecoming, and has contributed funds for schools in a foreign land.

The Art Club permits its members to develop their artistic abilities beyond the scope of their ordinary classwork. Through their development, the members are also able to serve the school's artistic needs.

Foreign Exchange

International Fellowship Students have always played an important role in the educational program of Elk Grove High School. This reciprocal exchange program has proved to be very successful in acquainting students with cultures of both the U.S. and South America.

During the summer of '68, six Elk Grove students traveled to South America as Junior Ambassadors of the U.S. Sandy Dukewich, Bonnie Kobert, Kathy Gardynski, Sue O'Hearn, Lynn Venlos, and Wendy Nathan brought much of the Grenadier spirit to the people of Colombia and Brazil.

This past summer was memorable and profitable for our exchange students. Just as Elk Grove has been known to South America through these girls, South America has been made known to us through one of Peru's Junior Ambassadors to the U.S., Rossina Enriqueta Zarate.

Rossina is a 1968 graduate of an all-girl Catholic school near Lima. She plans to continue her education with the study of psychology. Her trip to America was made possible through her proficiency in English, as exemplified by her performance in an essay contest. This is Rossina's first visit to America, and she describes it as "a wonderful experience."

The spark she has contributed to the glowing spirit of the Grenadiers is more than just another little victory at Elk Grove. It is a whole new friendship and understanding with people of a different culture than our own.

Resource Centers

At present, Elk Grove High School has three resource centers: the Humanities Center, History Resource Center, and Math-Science Center. All these centers provide material in their special fields.

The main purpose of the Humanities Center is to provide a pleasant atmosphere for people to gather amid resources of their interests. It serves as both an art gallery and a lounge. The resources of the Humanities Center include books, records, tapes, slides, art reproductions. This center is entirely student-run and-supervised.

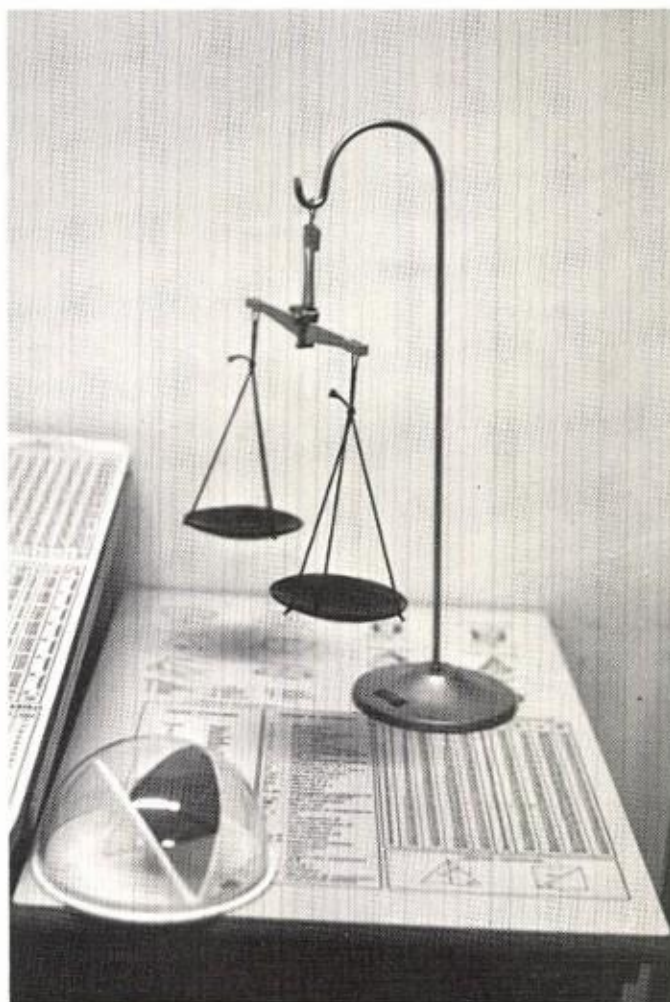

The Math-Science Resource Center is devoted to all fields of mathematics and science. Their facilities include films, calculators, textbooks, and other articles of special interest.

The History Resource Center is a library of historical texts and similar information. This center is used strictly for research and study in the field of history.

They sponsored and encouraged trips for foreign-exchange students to Mexico, Spain, and South America. This year, Rosina Zarate from Peru was a foreign-exchange student in our school. Ideas were brought up at club meetings to hold a bullfight in the courtyard and a taco sale. German Club took part in the Homecoming Parade and had a successful bake sale. They planned on visiting a German neighborhood in the spring.

Horseback-Riding Club

A new club to Elk Grove High School is the Horseback-Riding Club, sponsored by Miss Kauzlarich. Each Monday after school, members go to Midwest Stables to enjoy the sport of horseback riding. A horse show is sponsored every six weeks for interested riding students.

Social Science

Social Science Club, headed by President Pete Loisel, has been active in providing service to both the school and community. Members marched in the Danny Thomas Teen Canvass to collect for cerebral palsy, sponsored a donut day, and held a student "Mock Election." Their activities also included trips to Stateville Penitentiary and Black Power seminars.

Debate

Debate is a recognized speech activity. This year, Elk Grove High School has twelve novice debaters. The Debate Team, competing against all schools in the suburban area, has won several awards. This year's debate topic was: Resolved, The U.S. should enact a system of compulsory service for all citizens.

Individual Speech

Individual Speech Events consists of individual competition as opposed to group competition. There are numerous categories for competition, such as original monologue, serious play reading, and after-dinner speaking. This year, Elk Grove has done well in Individual Speech. Several students have won honors and trophies for our school.

Ski Club

Being a member of Elk Grove Ski Club not only meant skiing twice a week, but also meant being a member of the United Ski Association. Each member was awarded a patch and a free pass for a day of skiing at a ski resort. Ski Club also had movies and lectures on ski safety.

Ski Team

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Rossi, The Elk Grove Racing Team had an exciting year of slalom racing. Competing against seventeen schools in the area, they did surprising well for their first year of existence. Team members showed their school spirit by wearing green and gold ski sweaters.

J.R.R. Tolkien Society

The primary objective of the J.R.R. Tolkien Society is to discuss and analyze books written by the famed author of The Hobbit. One of their projects this year was to decorate the Humanities Center with posters. They also took trips into Old Town and made several tape recordings of novels by J.R.R. Tolkien to send to schools for the blind.

The Audio-Visual Club is a service program. The main objective of the club is to teach, guide, and direct students in a harmonious atmosphere of working together with teachers and administrators in effecting the best possible media program for our school. Each member must have a C-average, plus permission from his parents and each of his instructors.

Marching Band

The Grenadier Marching Band has performed in many activities and contests at Elk Grove and around Chicagoland. The 120-piece "Pride of the Grenadiers" is directed by Mr. Peterson, assisted by student director Jim Taylor and drum major Ken Johnson.

The marching band has been featured at Elk Grove athletic events. It has presented a variety of up-to-date songs, entertaining formations, flashy dance steps, and intricate precision marching drills.

The band was selected to be the feature band at Soldier Field for a professional football game. Elk Grove's Marching Band also participated in the All-School Marching Band that performed in Arlington for a Christmas parade.

The marching band competed for the first time in a marching band show contest at the Chicagoland Marching Band Festival at Wheeling. We were awarded a third place trophy. Another award was won by drum major Ken Johnson.

The band also has released a stereo recording in which the marching, jazz, concert, and symphonic bands were featured for your renewed listening pleasure.

Jazz Band

The Jazz Band, directed by Mr. Peterson, took superior ratings at several contests. They also competed at the Sesquicentennial State Fair and performed on the Howard Miller Show. In April the Jazz Band held a special public concert, and in May they performed for Lt. Governor Paul Simon at our Law-Day assembly. Bill Metcalf was honored by being elected to play in the All-Star Band at both Oak Lawn and Mundeline.

Color Guard

This year Elk Grove High School's Color Guard consisted of ten talented marching girls. Under the leadership of Jodi Knudson, the Color Guard has performed with the marching band at all home football games. They also competed with the band in a contest held at Wheeling. In addition, Color Guard presented the colors at the beginning of home basketball games. Tryouts for next year's Color Guard were held during the spring.

Freshmen Boys' Chorus

The Choral Music Department, consisting of the Choir, Girls' Glee Club, Freshmen Boys' and Freshmen Girls' Choruses, and Senior Girls' Ensemble, made several improvements this year. Elk Grove High School's first Freshmen Boys' Chorus was created with the help of fifteen boys, some of whom later moved on to Concert Choir. With the improvement of each group came increased activity in performance. On October 23 all four of the choruses toured to Queen of the Rosary, Lively Junior High, and Dempster Junior High schools. Girls' Glee Club and choir then went on to perform at Lincoln Junior High School in Skokie. On December 12 they also participated in several Christmas programs at Rupley School, High Ridge Knolls School, and Maryville Academy. The Randhurst Corporation invited Elk Grove to sing at the shopping center on November 30. It is apparent that the Choral Department had an active and successful year.

Guardian

The Elk Grove Guardian has the unending task of informing the student body. A school newspaper's main objective must be to arouse opinions and motivate the students to find a cause, to keep them interested as well as informed of events that affect them. The editorials fulfill this job by expressing a definite viewpoint and allowing an equal opportunity to those with opposing viewpoints in "Letters to the Editor." To add to the enjoyment of its readers, the Guardian puts out special editions, such as the Christmas issue, in which students are able to purchase advertisements in which they can send personal messages to their friends. The staff, under the guidance of Mr. Joseph Wellman and co-editors Kathy Evans and Cindy Zucker, works hard to put out a bi-monthly paper of which Elk Grove High School can be proud. Those who are on the staff but are not pictured are as follows: Shari Zerebiny, Chris Glejf, Maggie Creedon, Dalene Box, Marybeth Klopp, Nancy Pedersen, Carla Cuila, Kathy Ernest, Carole Kozler, Dennis Myhre, John Colberg, Wayne Mikos, and Mark Thompson.

Yearbook staff members Eileen Schimdt, Judy Retzke, and Pam Krull, work hard to meet a deadline.

Montage

To the majority of the students at Elk Grove High School, the yearbook is merely an annual account of each school year. However, to the sixteen members of the Montage staff and the many who worked during one of the lunch-study modules, the yearbook represents a year of hard work. The fourth and fifth hours of every school day, spent on writing copy, cropping photos, typing, and interviewing, will never be forgotten by the editors and staff members. Carol Weiner and Lynn Uhrhammer led the production of the yearbook while Mrs. Holt, the sponsor, approved pages and gave needed advice and moral support to the staff members.

Junior Varsity Basketball

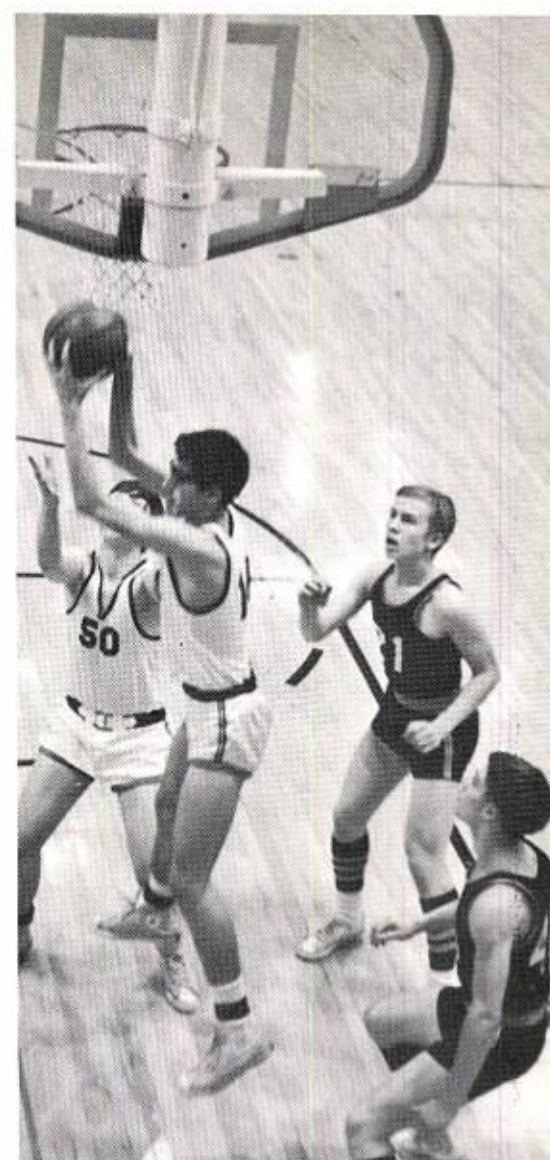

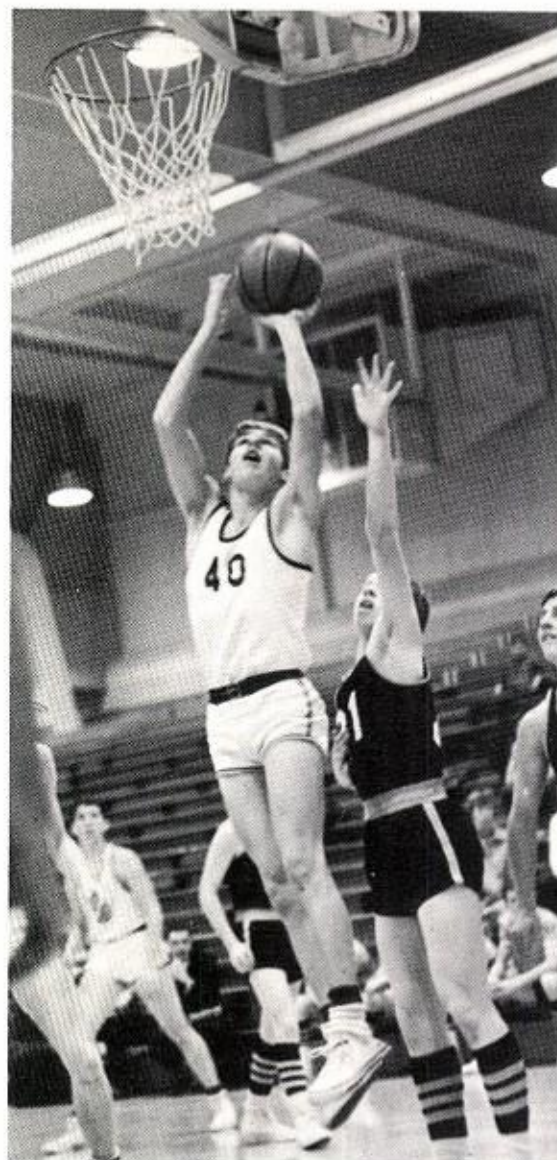

The '68-'69 Junior Varsity Basketball team, coached by Mr. Donald Schnake and Manager Glenn Peterson, didn't finish as high in the standings as they would have liked. Despite a 7-9 record, the Junior Varsity Grenadiers had some bright moments. Victories over Conant, Glenbard North, and Palatine, as well as two over Forest View, were among the bright moments. The most exciting game of the year was a tight 39-38 victory against Forest View on our home court. But there were bad times along with the good ones. Some of these were defeats, but nothing beats those great practices, as any Junior Varsity basketball player will tell you.

Swimming '68-'69

The 1968-69 Grenadier swimming team has improved greatly over last year's team. The team competes on the varsity and frosh-soph levels in both swimming and diving events. There are thirteen events: 200-yard medley relay, 400-freestyle relay, 50-, 100-, 200-, and 400-yard freestyle, diving, 200-yard individual medley, and 100-yard events in breaststroke, backstroke, and butterfly.

The team shows much promise because of freshman talent being brought in to add depth to the team. The team has broken nine of its thirteen records en route to its best record in three years of competition.

One of the outstanding performers on the squad had been senior Knut Bauer. Knut took first in the breaststroke event in the Niles East Pentathlon and has recorded a 1:05.7 in the 100-yard event which has broken the state qualifying time of 1:06.3. Senior Phil Philbin has been a strong performer in the 50-yard freestyle. Other strong performers have been Pete Loiselle, Bob Jacobsen, Mike Bachus, and Frank Back in freestyle; Jack Imlay and Mike Callahan in backstroke; Eric Dawson and freshman Bob Pastel in breaststroke; Pat Massey in butterfly; and freshman Cliff Schlak as an all-round performer.

Eric Dawson eyes the finish line in the 100-yard breaststroke.

1968 Varsity Baseball Takes First Elk Grove All-Conference Title

Victory is a means of bringing great honor to a school. This victory may come in many forms. The determination and hard work of those who made up Elk Grove's 1968 Baseball team was indeed great. The end result was the honor and glory brought to our school through the victory of the All-Conference Title. Many members of the team are now alumni of Elk Grove High School. They were a real asset to the team, and their absence will be greatly felt. However, the spirit that they inspired in those still at Elk Grove has created in the 1969 team a desire for making a tradition of this achievement.

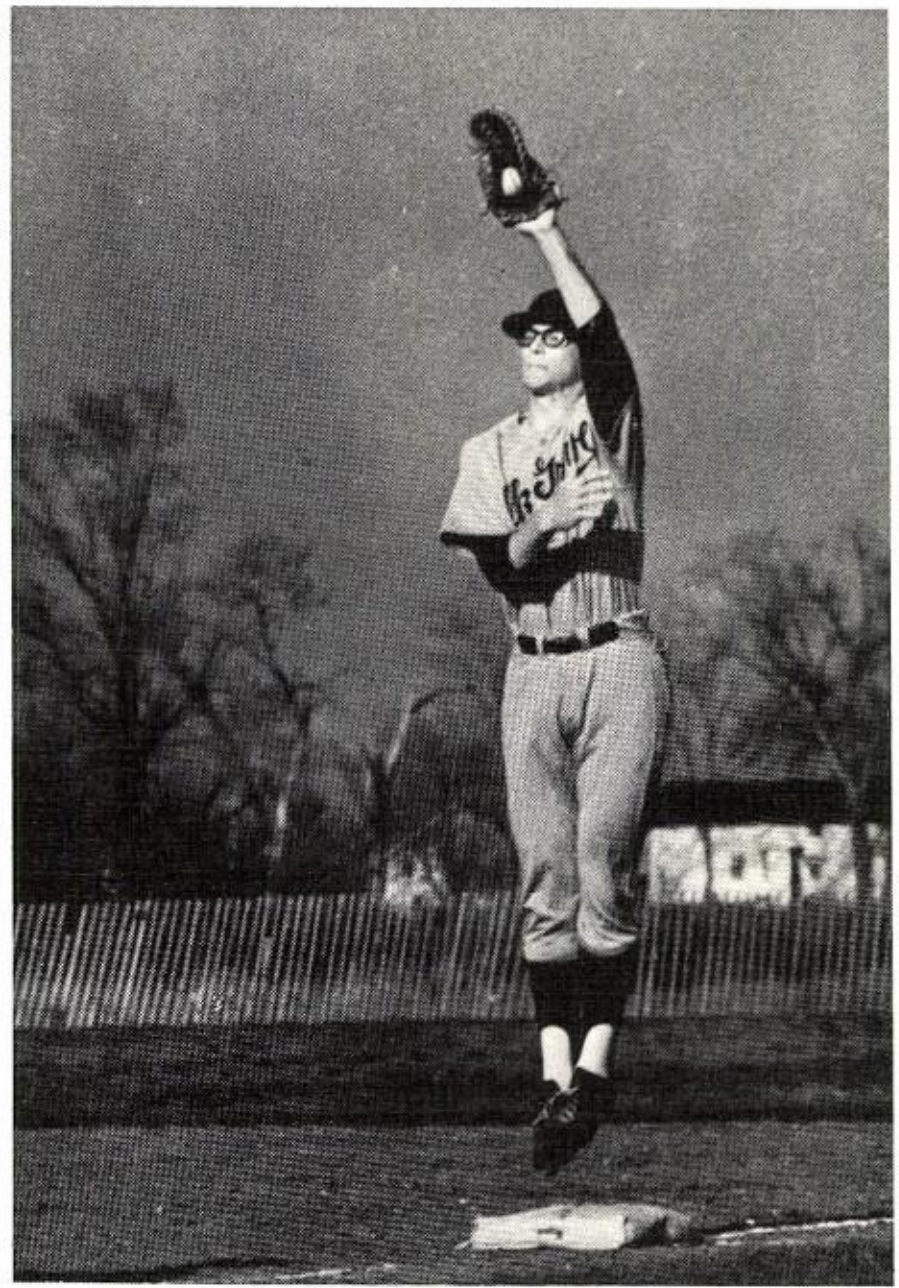

This first such title has, as its greatest effect, produced a new and winning spirit among the Grenadier Regiments. It is an honor which has placed Elk Grove among the high-ranking conference schools. We see as this title's highest value a Grenadier victory that will be long-cherished by all who have and will compose the Grenadiers of Elk Grove High School.

The excellent pitching skills of Bob Artemenko bring Grenadiers to victory.

One of the major organizations of Elk Grove High School is our Lettermen's Club. In order to become eligible for Lettermen's Club, one must earn a varsity letter. After being accepted, each probationary member must go through an initiation.

This year's club, led by President Tom Mann, Vice-President Bob Bachus, Secretary Pat Texidor, and Treasurer Gary Pleickhardt, has been a busy and profitable year. During Homecoming week, they sponsored a football raffle and our Homecoming Dance, which proved to be successful. They also are contemplating enlarging the Conference Baseball team pictures and displaying them in the foyer.

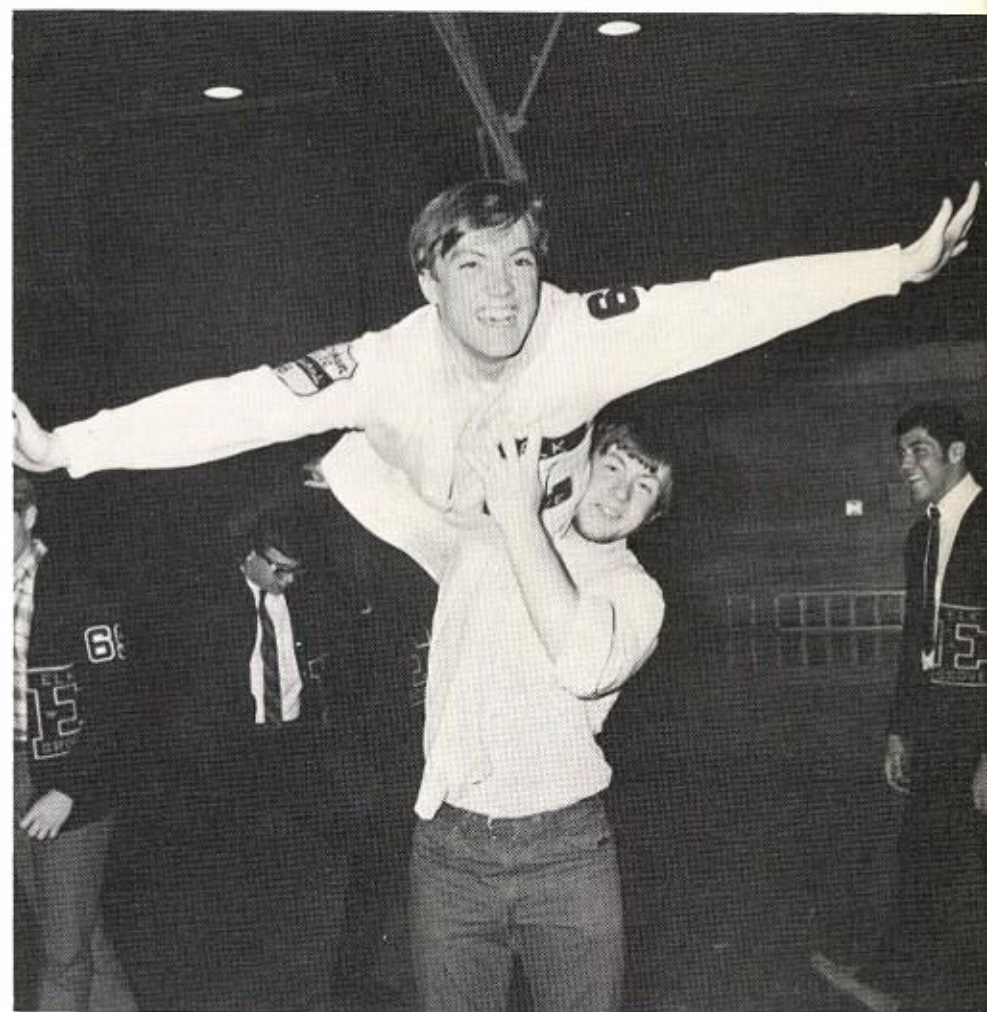

These are just the beginnings of what the lettermen hope will be an organization of great value and service to Elk Grove.

Varsity Cheerleaders

This year's Varsity cheerleaders were led by Captain Terri Altergott and Co-Captain Jeanne Gunkle. The Varsity squad was responsible for this year's Homecoming, Coronation, Pep rally, and mixer. They cheered at all football and basketball games and also attended swimming, track, and wrestling meets. This is the first year the squad has had alternates, although they were only permitted to cheer at home games and meets. Next year's Captain and Co-Captain will be sent to a summer camp to enable them to learn new methods of cheering.

Girls' Leaders

Under the sponsorship of Miss Mathews and the leadership of Nancy Pedersen, the Junior and Senior Girls' Leaders' Club started the year off with the blow of a whistle and the assurance of fun and surprises. Included in the year's activities were the club's representation in the Homecoming parade, holiday candy sales, and the annual "Snow-Man-Building Contest." The president is Nancy Pedersen; vice-president, Debbie Cuga; secretary, Linda Hudgins; and treasurer, Sandy Gentner. Other activity committees were formed, and each girl had her opportunity to display a most important quality—leadership.

Girls participating in leaders' class were chosen by Miss Mathews on the basis of personality, ability to learn and teach, and teachers recommendations. Each Junior leaders class was given an initiation by the Senior leaders to start off the year.

This year, the Senior leaders started their job of aiding gym teachers. This class was a challenge to all members but well worth the effort.

Mr. Robert Haskell, Principal

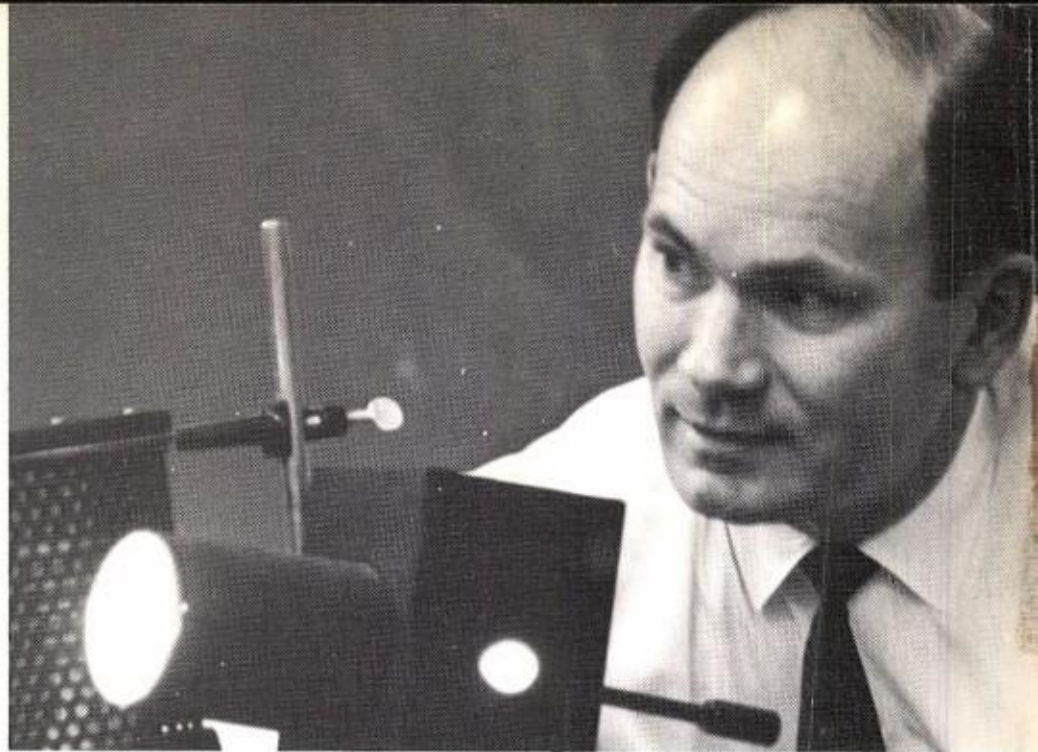

The word administration, according to Webster, means a body of men who administer. Yet, a school administration cannot only be a group of men who look on. Our administrative staff does much more. One of its main objectives is to create better communications between students and school. Next in line is understanding student affairs and desires. In fulfilling these aims, our administrators accomplish a larger goal, one of maintaining an educational atmosphere in the school.

Each of our administrators pictured on this page has his own place in the school to fill. Mr. Haskell, to whom this year's Montage is dedicated, is the guiding spirit for Elk Grove. Mr. Fyfe is responsible for the educational procedures of our school. Mr. Farris is well known to our student body in his capacity of guiding students. Mr. Aldrich is responsible for the many extra-curricular activities that make Elk Grove outstanding.

Juniors, '70

"Stupendous" was the word to describe the Juniors as they worked toward raising funds for that never-to-be-forgotten night, the Junior-Senior Prom, "Cherish." They sponsored the annual Powder Puff Football Game, sold senior class pins, and sponsored football and basketball concessions. While not raising money or producing spirit, the Juniors found time to win the canned-food drive. The spirited and eager class of '70 was led in its efforts by President, Sue Swanson; Vice President, Peggy Olson; Secretary, Pat Palezny; and Treasurer, Terry Morris.

Sophomores '71

The sophomore class was led this year by president, Larry Turner; vice-president, Debbie Khoshaba; secretary, Diane Rasmussen; and treasurer, Bonnie Popp. During Homecoming Spirit Week, the Sophomores showed their spirit by wearing '71 shirts. Friday the thirteenth was lucky for the Sophomores as they won the Spirit Cup for the second year in a row, this time in a game against Glenbard. To bring a good year to a close during the spring of '69, the Sophomores sponsored a turnabout dance, which was a big success.

Freshmen '72

The Freshman Class, led by Chuck Carroll, President; Nadine Marcheschi, Vice-President; Linn Austin, Secretary; and Sue Keegan, Treasurer, soon adjusted to the ways and traditions of Elk Grove.

They realized the importance of school spirit, as opposed to the single purpose of class competition. They took part in Student Council and the various class activities, which included concessions and an all-school mixer held in the spring.

With strong determination and growing leadership qualities, the Freshmen Class aims for higher goals in their future years at Elk Grove.

Fight on for Elk Grove

Charge down the field

Push on to Victory

We will never yield!

Raise high our banner

Hail to Varsity

Rise Elk Grove Grenadiers

Go Onward to Victory!

We Remember Their Victories . . .
